

Abstract

This thesis The history of the Teutonic Order and the foundations of the former convent church St. Catherine in Chomutov is focused on the historical development and the well-preserved chorus conclusion of the former convent church St. Catherine in Chomutov. After a general discussion of the history of the Commandery of the Teutonic Knights and Chomutov discusses the work of well-preserved Gothic choir concluded the convent church. Catherine in Chomutov. The bulk of the work is devoted to the building development, history and architectural description of the surviving parts. Preserved part is now part of Chomutov town hall.